PROGRAM DESCRIPTION

The Standard English program at CISL San Diego is for students who desire to improve their English so that they can communicate effectively and with confidence in English.

CURRICULUM & SPEAKING ACTIVITIES

Our integrated general English curriculum includes:

- A wide variety of reading, grammar, listening comprehension, writing and with a strong focus on conversational activities.
- Speaking activities include discussion, idiomatic expressions, and role-play.
- Small class sizes ensure plenty of individual attention and help.

PRESENTATIONS:

Presentations are an important part of the Standard course curriculum. CISL students are required to do a short presentation every 4 weeks on a topic of their choice. Students become more comfortable and enjoy the opportunity to receive feedback from their teacher on ways to improve. As a result, students become more confident when presenting in English.
