

ENGLISH FOR ACADEMIC PURPOSES (EAP) PROGRAM

Average
8 students
per class

PROGRAM DESCRIPTION

The English for Academic Purposes (EAP) program at CISL San Diego gives non-native speakers of English the reading, writing, and research skills necessary to succeed in a college or university in the United States.

THE EAP COURSE CAN BE INCLUDED AS PART OF THE FOLLOWING PROGRAMS:

Pre-University Program: (Designed for gap-year students)
The EAP Afternoon Elective has been added to effectively prepare students for an academic year abroad.

Pathway Program: (Designed for academically focused students)
Successful completion of the EAP course allows students to be conditionally accepted into several colleges or universities in the United States.

Afternoon Elective: The course is also available to all other students as an afternoon option.
For example:

- A. Standard English (morning) + EAP (afternoon)
- B. Test Preparation (morning) + EAP (afternoon)

PROGRAM REQUIREMENTS & DURATION:

English Level Requirement to participate in course:
